Short Stories of Unusual Happenings and Singular Experiences Picked Out of the Chronicles of the Day.

Helen Naughton, waty-five, and Jere- laborer, Wilbur Stevenson, miah O'Meara, seventy, were married last evening at Stamford, Conn. after an engagement of nearly fifty years. when he was mustered out couldn't find his sweetheart, but he never ceased to seek for her. She heard he had been killed, but didn't believe it, and waited. Neither of them ever had a thought of marrying another, they say.

Recently O'Meara crowned his long search by discovering the whereabouts of Miss Naughton.

$1,000,000 OFFERED FOR FRIEND'S LIFE. When Frank Ridgway, Public Safety

Director of Pittsburg, was ill there, A. B. Peacock, Andrew Carnegie's former junior partner, offered $1,000,000 to any physician to save his life. Ridgway and Peacock were inseparable friends for many years. Ridgway died on Monday. At the funeral yesterday Peacock said he would have given his whole fortune to save his friend. Peacock is worth the close of the first act. Zeppilli had sung splendidly and the curtain fell ANTI-SUICIDE BUREAU sung spiendidly and the curtain fell amid great applause, the big doll lying prostrate on the floor. Of course, the curtain was raised for the principals to return thanks. Just as it began to rise a burly slage hand, with tremendous strides, crossed the stage, grabbed the doll and tried to retire before the audience could see him. The doll stuck in the door through which the stage hand passed, and it was some minutes before it could be pulled out of sight. The audience saw the whole affair and laughed immoderately.

Marcel Charlier conducted, and the bar carole to be repeated of course.

VIENNA QUARTET AT COOPER UNION

The Vienna Quartet, assisted by Alfred Rieger, at Cooper Union Hall last evening made Beethoven's Viennese Dances the piece de resistance of their programme. It was the first time these dances have ever been played in America, and the rendition was an arrangement for 'cello, piano, two violins and a parlor organ. The interest in the Beethoven group was largely historical, and greater approval centred about the Quartet's playing of Grunfeld, Moskowski and Dvorak excerpts. Miss Rose O'Brien, the contraito, was soloist, and sang most satisfactorily Donizetti's "Zingara." Schubert's "Du bist die ruh," and German's "Love, the Peddler."

The programme included Brahme's quintet in F minor for strings and plano; Mozart's quartet in C, and Corelli's variations on "La Folias." The latter number was played by Miss Mead, with a harpsichord accompaniment by Arthur Whitting. The SAVED MANY IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.-The Chicago Anti-Suicide Bureau of the Salvation Army has issued a report of the cases handled and suicides prevented since the establishin gof the bureau, six months ag. In that time 335 persons have sogthut he assistance offered by the bureau, and of this number it is estimated that 80 per cent, have been saved from self-destruction.

A significant fact is that the overwhelming number of those who applied to the bureau were men. Only sixty-five women availed themselves of the help.

E give word here of the most wonderful clothing sale that has ever stirred the trade -a sale nothing short of marvellous in the economies it affords. The times have brought this unparalleled event about—a season that leaves us with a great surplus stock. There's but one remedy-one means of hurrying winter stocks out at oncethe dismissal of all thoughts of profit.

And we've not been half-hearted, as these slashing reductions will show. Not only have the profits been lost sight of but a great deal of the cost, too. And in considering these phenomenal reductions remember this: Every suit and overcoat is the product of our own workrooms; garments that are tailored with a skill that knows no superior and styled in a manner that leaves nothing wanting. 'Tis wise to act on the momen:
